Mrs. Boyle Is Honored With Dinner, Shower.

Gertrude Boyle, retiring president of Bert S. Crossland Unit No. 170 was complimented when her board of directors entertained last Friday evening at a delightful dinner party. Arrangements for the enjoyable affair were completed by Velora Murphy and Mabel Williams.

The group gathered at the El Prado home of Bea Burchette and proceeded to Long Beach Army Air Base. Officers Club where dinner was served. Covers were placed for 19, four of the officers being unable to attend.

During the evening the honoree was the recipient of a monetary gift presented in an appropriate greeting card.

NEWLYWEDS VISIT
Newlywed Mr. and Mrs. Richard E. Honrath, of Santa Barbara, visited his mother, Mrs. Dora Honrath, and other relatives here en route to Catalina for a holiday weekend trip.

The occasion coinciding with Mrs. Boyle's birthday anniversary, she also was showered with exquisite handkerchiefs and birthday cards. Later a decorated cake arrived as a gift from her husband, Col. Pat Boyle of the U.S. Army Reserve. Card play concluded the evening.

Card Party

Mrs. Martha Moffitt will serve as hostess chairman for this evening's Catholic ladies card party in Nativity Hall, Cota at Manuel avenue. Everyone is invited. Tallies may be procured at the door.

Presentation of the first door prize will be made at 8 o'clock and customary games will follow. At the close of play, while tallies are being added delicious summertime refreshments will be served by Mrs. Moffitt and her committee.

Assisting with party arrangements are Meses. Moeller, Clayton, Richards, Chicoline Cochran, Wilken, Young, Lewellen, Dietlin, Ames, Boos, Hoffman, Biggs, McBreen and Kristufok.

"LOVE FROM MOTHER" . . . Howard Kerrigan's Air Force buddies whistled when he pinned up this picture over his locker. They wouldn't believe it was his mother, even when the 19-year-old cadet sent it home to Irvington, N. Y., and had it inscribed: "To Howard, Love, Mother." What Howard's buddies didn't know is that his mother is a professional model and teacher. There's another son, too—Timothy, 11, a student in Terrytown, N. Y.

REPRESENT YWCA AT ANNIVERSARY DINNER

Mrs. A. E. Palmer, Mrs. Mary Uimer, Miss Esther Maxwell, and Mrs. Ben Hostmark represented the Torrance YWCA Committee at the twenty-fifth anniversary dinner of the Los Angeles Welfare Federation at the Shrine Auditorium last week. Chief speaker for the event was Kay Kyser, famed radio personality. Loretta Young and Bob Hope were among the participants in the affair arranged to launch plans for the 1949 Community Chest Campaign.

Sam Levy of Torrance and Mrs. John Kirsch and Harold W. Garvin of Lomita were among those elected by the assemblage to serve as members of the board of directors for the Welfare Federation, representing Palos Verdes Estates and Rolling Hills on the board are Dr. Paul A. Reeder and Kelvin C. Vanderlip.

Hospital, Americanism Citations Are Received

Next regular meeting of the V.F.W. Auxiliary to Post 70, 3251 will be held Monday evening, July 11, in the clubhouse, Washington at Arlington avenue. President Anne Warburton will conduct the meeting.

Election of a senior vice president will highlight the agenda. Delegates Anne Warburton, Hilma Malin, and Mabel Weiland, have returned from the state convention at Sacramento, bringing with them citations for the auxiliary for hospital work, and Americanism. Marie Klugow was elected department president, the women report.

The regular sewing session will be held in the clubhouse beginning at 10:30 this morning. A large attendance is requested.

Tonight's Lecture on 'Personality Plus' to Feature Hair Styling

Hair styling by Nick Thomas will be demonstrated at the "Personality Plus" session scheduled for 7:15 tonight at the Central Guild Hall, Arlington at Marcelina. Mr. Thomas, Long Beach hair specialist, will bring to Torrance some of his own models with hair set ready for combing. He also will show some of the girls in the audience how they could best style their hair to suit their facial pattern and personality.

"Personality Plus" is sponsored by the Torrance YWCA for girls 14 to 18 years of age. Mrs. Elaine Hostmark, YWCA program director, announced that girls who did not attend the first session may register tonight. There is a fee of fifty cents for the series.

New Year's Work Is Launched By Council

Around tables gaily decorated with fire crackers, and red, white, and blue streamers, the first meeting of the Ladies Council of the Christian Church Tuesday morning got off with a "bang" with Mrs. Elva Howell presiding.

The new budget was approved and the following committee chairmen were appointed: Stewardship, Mrs. Albert Pitzer; Spiritual Life, Mrs. Cecil England; Missionary, Mrs. Charles Stock; Social Action, Mrs. Herbert C. Allen; Hospitality, Mrs. C. W. Bartholomew; Christian Literature, Mrs. Frank Franz; Ways and Means, Mrs. Rodepouch; Sunshine Chairman, Mrs. Fols.

Special music was furnished by a trio consisting of Misses Joyce and Jean Franzen and Betty Branum, followed by devotions, "Within the Family of God" brought by Mrs. Cecil England.

Mrs. Bert Dye gave a book review on, "Missions at the Grass Roots," telling of the problems of the early settlers of Missouri and then of the "Gold Rush" days and bringing the situations up to the present time.

The following meetings will be held on consecutive Tuesdays this month. Circle No. 3, Mrs. Burke Mosley, president, will meet July 12 at 1:30 p.m. at 23846 Ward street, Walteria. Circle No. 4 will meet with Mrs. Townsend on July 19 at 1 p.m. at 24321 Alliene street. Lomita and Circle No. 5 will meet with Mrs. Edwards, July 26, at 1 p.m. at her home 2208 Andree avenue.

A "Crusade" dinner will be served immediately following the morning worship Sunday July 10, after which there will be joint meetings of elders, deacons and deaconesses who will plan for the new year's work.

Party Marks Symphony Anniversary

The 10th anniversary party of the Palos Verdes Symphony Orchestra was celebrated by members with dinner and a swimming party at the Portuguese Bend Club Thursday evening. Before and after dinner, swimming under the stars in the club's lighted pool proved the main attraction for the guests.

Among the guests were Mr. and Mrs. Josef B. Piastro, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Warren, Mr. and Mrs. Hammond Sadler, Joe Drovich, Richard Hiss, Marjorie, Betty Mae and Mrs. Bowling, Mr. and Mrs. George Pettit, Don Lassala, Eddy Krevas, Tom Barstow, Barbara Auerbach, Erna Cowles, H. M. Dillinger, Mr. and Mrs. Bill Carnes, Mr. and Mrs. Shanks, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Caldwell, Mr. and Mrs. Ira Westley, Mr. and Mrs. Stall, Jeanne Jefferson, Kenneth Hinkley, Alice Akers, and Alan Kingman.

The orchestra was founded in June of 1939 by the Palos Verdes Community Arts Association and Piastro. Since that time the orchestra, under the direction of Piastro, has presented many notable concerts and has received warm praise for its work. A concert is being prepared now for presentation in the near future.

Musicians in the community who are not members of the organization already are invited to attend rehearsals at 7:30 each Monday night in the Malaga Cove School, in Palos Verdes Estates.
